

THE MUSTANG POST

April 1, 2022

Dear Parents,

Here we are on the downhill side of spring semester! The calendar is packed with deadlines, concerts, testing, special events and senior activities. Shorts are now permitted through the end of the year. Mr. Rienhoff and Mr. Netzer have put together an exciting Career Day for next Thursday. We have over a dozen special speakers and activities for students regarding job-readiness.

The week of April 11th is our standardized testing week. Juniors will take their SAT test on Wednesday, April 13th; the freshmen and sophomores will take their PSAT tests on Thursday, April 14th. Because it takes a majority of the staff to proctor these tests, regular classes will not be held those two days. The juniors will take the science CMAS test on Friday, April 22nd during the regular school day.

Easter weekend is a long weekend with no school on April 15th or 18th.

Students have been enjoying the new outdoor basketball goal that was purchased by the National Honor Society through proceeds earned at their last bake sale. Thank you to Nate and Mrs. Adams for going to pick it up. Enjoy your weekend, all!

Respectfully,
Mrs. Lamgo

Hooray! It is Career Day at Addenbrooke Classical Academy!

On April 7, our students will get to hear from fourteen different professionals from a variety of backgrounds in order to engage in discussions about their career paths and areas of expertise. Juniors and Seniors will also get to hear from a specialist on resume writing, interviewing strategies, and financial aid.

We are very excited to bring in the surrounding community professionals to your Addenbrooke students which include:
