

Dear Addenbrooke Community,

We hope that you have enjoyed every moment of your summer break. Welcome to the 2022-2023 school year. Our administrative team is back in the office today, and we are looking forward to the upcoming school year. As we strive to provide outstanding environments at every level of our learning community, we continue to ask you as family members to partner with us. When we work together, our students are the benefactors. Please note the upcoming August events that need to be on your calendar.
