 THANK YOU FOR PARTICIPATING!

Dear Parents,

Next Wednesday, March 6th will be our school Battle of the Books Competition!!

We will meet in the Middle School Commons at 3:30. (We will be setting up before this.)

Competition is scheduled until 4:30 but may be done sooner.

We'd love to have you come and support your students and look forward to seeing you there!

Thank you,

"the most unique fundraiser of the year"

Beginning on Monday, March 4th, you'll find containers sitting outside the office labeled with your teacher's name.

The twisted penny is a fun classroom competition to raise funds for our PHYSICAL EDUCATION PROGRAM (hoping to buy the materials to teach paddleball). The competition has a daily winner and assortment of prizes awarded to the classes over the next nine school days.

All pennies and paper money (checks included) is counted towards your teacher/house's daily total, with the twist coming when you load up the other jugs with any silver coins, (nickels, dimes and quarters). All silver is counted against that teacher's total amount.

There will be great daily incentives and winners so keep your class amounts climbing by putting in pennies and dollars in your teacher's jug. The total of money collected must exceed $70 for a daily prize to be awarded. The Middle School will have both house points and the listed awards if they collect more than $70 in a day as a whole.

Remember though, the twist is to put silver in other jars which goes against that class total!

Help your child dig up as many pennies as you can find, and if those are in short supply any form of cash/check will help your child's class in the quest to become the twisted penny champions!

Prizes by day are listed below (One daily for homeroom and one for each Middle School Advisement)

Week 1

Monday: Popcorn and a Movie for the class
Tuesday: 20 Minute Recess for the class
Wednesday: Donuts and Juice for the class
Thursday: Hat Day for the class
Friday: Sweet Treats for the class

Week 2

Monday: Board Game Hour for the class
Tuesday: Root Beer floats for the class
Wednesday: PJ Day for the class
Thursday: Pizza Lunch for the class
