

Executive Summary

Addenbrooke Classical High School

March, 2022

Highlights:

- 60 students attended Colorado Ballet's performance of Prokofiev's Romeo and Juliet
- Gifted and Talented students attended two plays at the DPAC: Rattlesnake Kate (world premiere) and Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf
- MCR #3 essays were completed and will be scored by the faculty on March 2
- Senior night for the basketball teams were well attended and several alumni were present

Updates:

- Graduation planning is well underway. We have nine valedictorians this year.
- Concurrent enrollment professors for HIS 112, 121, and COM 115 have been found and are waiting on approval from RRCC. No one applied to the ad for BIO 111.
- A Career Day is being planned for April 7.
- PSAT and SAT testing is scheduled for April 13-14
- Missing Assignment Detention is working. Failing grades have dropped from 55 first semester to 24 currently.
- We have moved Mr. Lewis out of Red 3- Algebra II and Black 3- Algebra I. Mrs. Christina Rienhoff and Carol Jones are co-teaching those classes through the rest of the semester. This will allow extra time for Mr. Lewis to plan his lessons and maintain his gradebook.