

THE MUSTANG POST

September 2, 2022

Dear Parents,

Thursday, September 8th at 6:00 p.m. we will host our High School Parents Classical Education Night from 6:00-7:30 p.m. It is important that you understand what makes Classical education different from the neighborhood high school. We will present a brief overview of Classical Education and have you participate in a socratic seminar as well as enjoy a time of fellowship over dessert.

Faculty Spotlight:

Mrs. Jennifer Crittenden- Classical Literature, Senior Rhetoric, Yearbook

Mrs. Jennifer Crittenden has been part of the Addenbrooke community for several years, first as a paraprofessional and last year as one of our high school English teachers. She graduated from Northwestern State University in Tahlequah, Oklahoma, with a bachelor's degree in General Studies with an Emphasis in Humanities, Teaching and Learning, and Literary Studies. She is currently working on a master's degree in Curriculum and Instruction Theory at Western Governors University. She was awarded Teacher of Note last year at Addenbrooke.

Mrs. Crittenden has two children who are both students at Addenbrooke, one sophomore and one eighth grader. Jennifer loves to cook, hike, camp, and read. She has a killer shredded apple pie recipe she inherited from her great grandmother.

Today and always, there will be an obligation to pass on to the new generation the tradition of liberal scholarship - scientific or in the humanities - and to bring the understanding of things and human actions to everyone.
